

Fellowship's Heartbeat

Volume 15 Issue 1

January 2010

Happy New Year!

Due to time constraints, this month's issue of the Heartbeat is an abbreviated edition. 2010 promises to be a year of exciting outreach to our community with the great news of the love of God through salvation in Jesus. This year may we come to understand better that it isn't about us—it's about those who are around us and among us who do not have a personal relationship with Jesus. May we each say to Jesus, "Where can You use my hands, my feet, my voice, my mind, my heart?"

-Pastor Bell

Students

Youth activities will be back in gear January 6. College Bible study at TCC will resume January 6 and the Thursday College Dinner and Bible studies will begin January 7. A great way to minister to college students is by providing lunch on Wednesdays, or hosting the Thursday dinner and Bible study. Call me!

This season has been an especially sweet time for me and for my family. After a month in the hospital, I am recuperating well and have begun to eat again! Just in time! God's blessings surround us all the time and so often we take them for granted. As one of your New Year's Resolutions, may I suggest two—take every opportunity to tell the ones you love that you love them. And take every opportunity to tell those around you that God loves them and showed that love so completely in Jesus. Again, a very special thank you to our church family. Thanks for loving us and loving teens. -Tom

Heart Note

The family of Red Sullivan thanks you for the kindness and support you have shown during his illness and subsequent passing. A special thanks for everyone who participated in his "homecoming" service. It was a very fitting tribute to his memory that will be cherished by us all. Thanks, also, for the meal prepared for family members, the cards received, gifts of food brought to our home, and for the prayer support. What a living testimony you all have been to our family. Sanctuary Choir—Thank you for all of your hard work on our Christmas musical. It was a good challenge for us and I have heard many good comments. I trust that you have been enjoying time with your family and friends celebrating the birth of Jesus. Can you believe it's 2010 already! Time sure does fly. And we have much to accomplish. Let's commit this year to taking each and every opportunity to share Jesus with those around us whether in word or deed. We don't want anyone to miss knowing our great Savior and Redeemer.

OK Chorale—Senior Adult Choir: Our rehearsals for 2010 will begin on Wednesday, January 20. I'm looking forward to being with you again and getting to work on some wonderful music with you.

Learn to Touch Them with God's Love

In John 3:16 we read, "For God so loved the world..." and in Luke Jesus instructs His disciples that "repentance and remission of sins should be preached to the nations, beginning at Jerusalem." How do we present the gospel to Jewish people, a segment of the world that is often overlooked out of fear and even false doctrines? For an answer to this question, come join us on Sundays January 10, 17 and 24 in Dr. Fulton's classroom from 4:30-5:30 p.m. Please call the church office to sign up — food will be part of one class! If you have any questions, please call Eloise (320-0404) or Steve Goldstein (559-1111).
